AT-LARGE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Statement on the Security & Stability Advisory Committee (SSAC) Retreat Agenda

Letter from the Chair to the Chairman of the ICANN Board of Directors

Introductory Statement
By the Staff of ICANN

During its meeting on August 25th 2009, the At-Large Advisory Committee (ALAC) decided to submit a formal Statement on the Public Consultation on the Security & Stability Advisory Committee Retreat (http://www.icann.org/en/public-comment/public-comment-200909.html - ssac-retreat).

The following Statement on the was written by the Liaison of the At-Large Advisory Committee to the Security and Stability Advisory Committee (SSAC), Patrick Vande Walle, and transmitted to the Chairman of the SSAC, Steve Crocker on September 21st 2009.

[End of Introduction]

ALAC Statement on the Security & Stability Advisory Committee (SSAC) Retreat Agenda

Steve and all,

It is my pleasure to forward to the Security and Stability Advisory Committee the best wishes of the At-Large Advisory Committee for a successful retreat at the end of this month.

The ALAC is convinced that the work of the SSAC is crucial for the Internet community and welcomes the agenda of the upcoming SSAC retreat. The ALAC thinks these matters are indeed important and looks forward with confidence to the outcome of this retreat.

Patrick Vande Walle
ALAC liaison to SSAC