

- Moustapha Mamba GUIRASSY
- Born 12 February 1965 in Dakar,
- Married
- Minister of Communication and spokesperson for the government
- Mayor of Kédougou since March 2009
- Parliamentary deputy from 2007 to 2009
- Regional Advisor for Tambacounda, in charge of international relations from 2002 to 2009
- Vice President and co-founder of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce of West Africa, 2008
- Vice President and co-founder of GPRSK (Groupe de Prospective et de Stratégie pour la Région de Kédougou), 2008
- Member of the Academy Of Management, USA, 2007
- President of the IAM group (Institut Africain de Management) since 1996. Under his leadership, the IAM filled the ISO 9001-2000 requirements, received CAMES accreditation, and established itself in Ouagadougou, Bamako and Tambacounda.
- Co-founder of the Observatory of Ethical Practices in Business (2006)
- Co-founder of the AABS (African Association of Business Schools) , headquarters are based in South Africa, 2005
- President of the Ecole Supérieure Franco-Sénégalaise ETTICA (School of International Communication and Business Techniques) since 2002
- Site engineer and assistant to the superintendant of Flakt Canada on the Alcan latterrière project (Design and set up of dry scrubbers for tank rooms – Canada)
- Lecturer at the Université Québec A Chicoutimi (Electrical Engineering) 1988.

- Project Advisor in Engineering (Université du Québec A Chicoutimi) 1988
- CEO of SOLIC (Société de Logistique Internationale Canadienne) from 1986 to 1990. Specialising in the marketing of I.T. equipment
- Member of the National Confederation of Employers of Senegal CNES
- Administrator and Vice President in charge of international relations at the MDES (Mouvement des Entreprises du Sénégal), from 2004 to 2006
- Founder member of the research unit for local development.
- Member du Comité de Réflexion Stratégique sur les Etudes en Gestion Afrique Francophone -
- President of the GMA (Génération Millénaire Africaine) –
- Primary school studies in Dakar at the « école médina » and Kédougou (école municipale) »
- Studies : Lycée Blaise DIAGNE from 1977 to 1984
- Graduated in electrical engineering at the Université du Québec à Chicoutimi, Canada (from 1985 to 1989)
- Master's degree in Business Administration Affaires (Université du Québec à Chicoutimi - Canada) 1991