

BRAZILIAN INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND INFORMATICS' LAW - BIPIL

BRAZILIAN INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND INFORMATICS' LAW - BIPIL -

BRAZILIAN INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND INFORMATICS' LAW - BIPIL Objectives

- Implement research and activities that have the scientific study of law and, in particular, the Computer Law as their object;
- Hold seminars, conferences, courses and symposiums, also in conjunction with other institutions, on issues of Computer Law and Administration of Computing Resources, or other relevant legal issues;
- Stimulate the emergence of issues concerning computer science's law in undergraduate and postgraduate students of the Faculties of Law and Administration;
- Promote cultural exchanges with foreign agencies and national counterparts;
- Give technical advice and submit draft bills relating to Computer Law;
- Conclude agreements with any institutions for the better realization of its goals, especially with universities, colleges and other congeners institutes;
- Maintain a library and a specialized sector of jurisprudence;
- Publish magazines, newsletters or papers on Computer Law;
- Develop, in partnership with other organs, projects on structuring and planning, computer-public authorities, especially the judiciary;
- Provide technical and legal assistance within the Informatics' Department, a public agency or other social organizations, by signing agreements or management contracts.

BRAZILIAN INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND INFORMATICS' LAW - BIPIL - activities and accomplishments

Our activities: <http://www.ibdi.org.br/site/atividades.php>

BRAZILIAN INSTITUTE OF POLITICS AND INFORMATICS' LAW - BIPIL