

Internauta is a nonprofit civil association, founded by Internet users and social actors who see on the Internet a new means of communication, that - vertiginously- is transforming our culture. We understand that the Internet is a powerful tool for social transformation, which allows you to build citizenship and apply this to freedom and independence of citizens.

The goal of Internauta Brazil is to ensure the development, evolution and open use of Internet for the benefit of all Brazilians who use it as a tool for community intervention. In addition to creating a forum for debate, discussion and participation, in order to enable creative and innovative ability of all Internet users from Federative Republic of Brazil.

We strongly believe that access to information and education is a right , not a privilege!
