

The University of the West Indies

A regional university system for the fifteen (15) English-speaking Caribbean countries partially publicly-funded. The university is focused on teaching and research, especially in topics of interest to our region and presently has 53K students in faculties; Medical Sciences, Pure & Applied Science, Humanities and Education, Social Sciences, Law, Agriculture. There are resident campuses in three countries - Jamaica, Barbados and Trinidad & Tobago, an Open Campus and university centres in 12 Caribbean territories.

The University of the West Indies Objectives

To foster development of the Internet for use in education and training in support of our broad mission to educate and improve the region's human resource base and potential.

The University of the West Indies activities and accomplishments

Participant in Caribbean Internet Governance Forum, Regional ICT Steering Committee and development of policy perspectives in ICTs in education for various Caribbean governments.

The University of the West Indies
<http://www.uwi.edu/>